Commander's Travel Notes

May 29, 2023

I've been to San Antonio Posts more than anywhere else this Legion year. Thanks for all the invitations. My last trip was to attend a Memorial Day remembrance. George Alva along with the help of the wonderful staff at Chapel Hill Cemetery in Converse Tx. It was an absolutely beautiful setting.

Before the beginning of the program, George and others were given a wonderful tour of the existing and remodeled Chapel facility. The program got kick-off before a very respectful crowd looking forward to sharing their remembrance on this Memorial Day.

The mayor of Converse Tx and myself, George Alva, and many others spoke on this beautiful day. At the end of my speech sharing my experience of the lost of a family member during the Vietnam Conflict. Once I finished I extended one of my challenge coins to the mayor and he bequeathed one of his coins to me.

At the end of the program, all I attendance walk through the cemetery with our national flags in hand to post at each veteran's grave accompanied by a salute. Thanks again George Alva for your and your team's hard work putting on another successful program.

Until we meet again
