

We are getting down to the wire, Commander Frain and CWF Chairman Chris Carlton need all of our assistance. Do you want to watch Commander Frain get his head shaved at convention in Reno? There is no time to waste. We have had a fantastic year so far with our donations to CWF, but we need to finish strong. Please distribute all of the attachments to all of your contacts to give them a friendly reminder that the end is near. Remember Knowledge is Power, spread the knowledge.
