

Midwest Leaders,

I'm running a little late today getting this report out. I'm sure many of you have seen it and analyzed it as best as possible. I've been on the road heading to Manhattan, KS for our Mid Winter Forum. It will be great to hang out with my Legion Family again.

I gotta say it. WE ROCK! Looking at last year's numbers we are knocking this years membership out of the park. As a region we are at 75.79% with the Target of 75% coming up on February 15th. We will get there and surpass it. I'm positive that Texas, Wyoming and New Mexico will soon join the party. Colorado and North Dakota are standing at the door getting ready to kick it up. I will say it again, it will only get more difficult from here. Let's get out there and get those renewals. It's proven that we can recruit. Also remember those in-active squadrons. Let's see about revitalizing them. It's amazing the things you can accomplish when you "Just Ask".

Remember, you can make a difference.
