

Midwest Leaders,

Hey! It's me again. I hope that I'm not bugging you too much but it's getting down to crunch time. As I stated last week, we are #5 out of 5 as far as regions go. It wouldn't take that much for us to move up in the standings. Have you put the word out to your Squadrons about getting those renewals taken care of? That's how this thing is going to work. We have to get our members to renew and explain to them the benefits of being a member of one of the greatest Veteran and their Families organizations. Yes, we are ahead of last year. That has been stated many times. Please, do not give up. Yes it's a little harder now, but with the effort we can get it done. Always remember, Midwest is Best! Thank you for all you do!

Remember, you can make a difference
